Attendance Planner

The Attendance Planner is an adaptable application which you can use for vacation scheduling, shift planning or rosters.

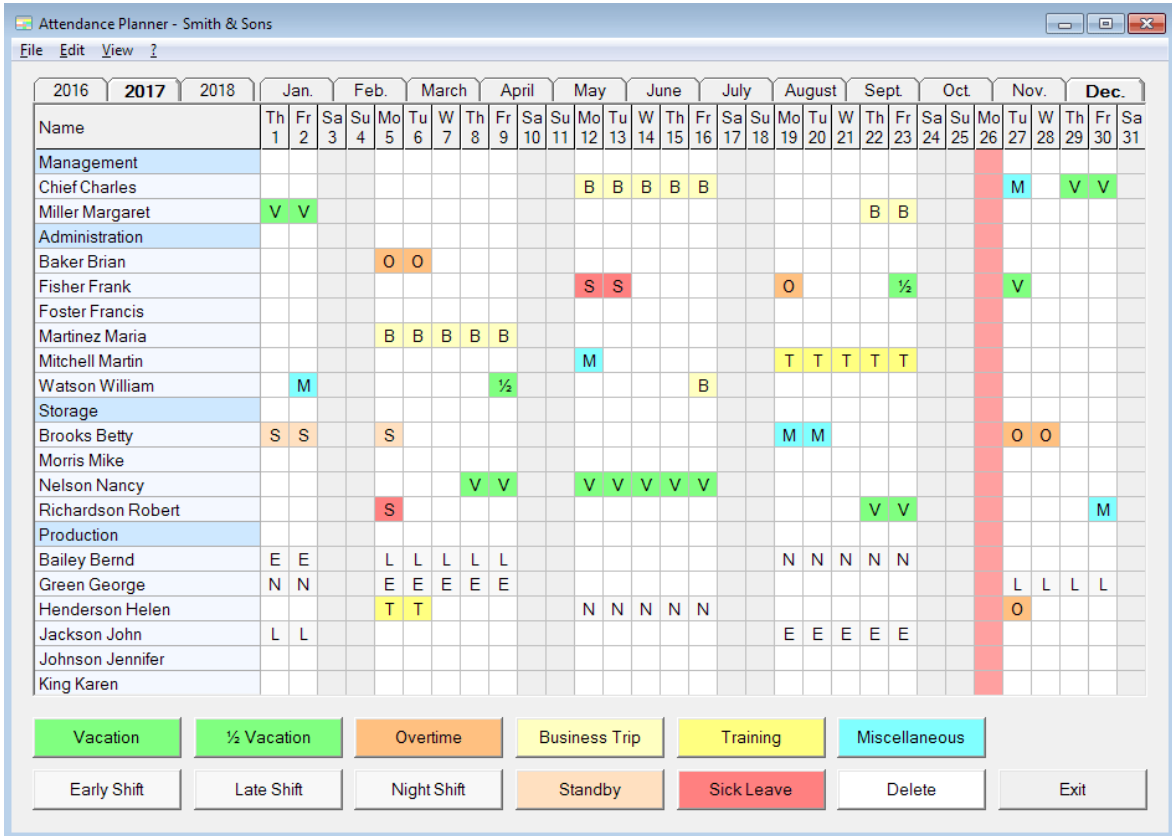

Attendance can be recalled going back to the beginning of the last year. Entries can be made in advance up to the end of the next year.

At the beginning of a new year the program automatically switches one year onward. The program is thereby usable for all subsequent years without the necessity of manual intervention. The attendance of the year before last year is deleted at the beginning of a new year.

The number of buttons for the 'reasons for presence/ absence' as well as their description and color design can be freely determined.

Startup

The attendance of the current month is displayed following the program startup.

Depending on the display resolution the buttons describing 'reasons for presence or absence' are displayed at the lower or right-hand edge of the window. The current day column is highlighted in color.

The register cards near the top of the screen can be selected in order to view attendance in different months.

You can search for employees by pressing CTRL + F. Press F3 to continue search.

Using the menu option File - Print you can print the monthly overview. You can print the monthly overview for all months at once by pressing CTRL + SHIFT + P.

Copying and inserting entries

You can mark entries, copy them to the clipboard and insert them as often as you want:

- Highlight the entries which you would like to copy with the mouse.
- Right-click the mouse whilst pressing the CTRL key (the marked entries are transferred to the clipboard)
- Right-click the mouse, whilst pressing the SHIFT key, on the field in which you would like to insert the entries.

- The entries will be inserted beginning from the clicked cell.

Click on the field in which you would like to enter or change data. The current line is indicated in color.

A new line can be inserted above the current line using the button Insert Line. The current line may be deleted with the button Delete Line.

With the buttons Up and Down you can move the content of the current line a line upward or downward.

Headlines

Headlines can be inserted as follows: Instead of a name enter the character > followed by the headline text and leave the other fields of the line empty. The headline is indicated in color.

Temporary employees

The beginning and end of the employment period can be entered for temporary employees. These employees are only displayed in the Planner during the months in which they are employed.

Should the period of employment of a permanent employee begin or end, you need only to enter the start or end date. The second date field can remain empty.

Vacation entitlements

If you wish to use the Vacation Overview (menu option View - Vacation Overview), you can enter the vacation entitlements of the employees. Before you start you should first read the notes in the chapter Vacation Overview.

At the beginning of a new year the vacation entitlements automatically switch over one year and you can enter the vacation entitlements for a further year. The residual leave is always effective of January 1st of the previous year.

Display Groups

In order to avoid paging through long lists of employees, the employees can be divided into groups. If you have selected the option Use Display Groups in the menu option Edit - General Settings - Display Groups, then you will be provided with an additional menu option Edit - Display Groups.

Using the menu option Edit - Display Groups you can create a new Display Group by clicking on the button Add, and provide the group with a name of your choice.

By inserting headings in the employee data you are able to group your employees. All employees falling under a given heading form a group. For each Display Group created you can determine which groups are able to see.

As soon as you have created more than one Display Group, a new field will be created in the main window allowing you to select Display Groups.

Using the Rename button you can provide the selected Display Group with a new name. Using the Delete button you are able to delete the selected Display Group.

Reasons for Presence/ Absence

The buttons representing the 'reasons for presence and absence' can be defined using the menu option Edit - Reasons for Presence/ Absence.

More Presence/ Absence Buttons >> Help ... OK Cancel

For each 'reason for presence/ absence' enter a code letter and descriptive text for the button. You can select text color and background color of each 'reason for presence/ absence' with the button Select a Color.

You can use the same code letter for several buttons, but only if you use different background colors.

You can delete a button, by deleting the related code letter and the description text.

If you wish to use the Vacation Overview (menu option View - Vacation Overview), you can create buttons for full and half days vacation. Using the menu option Edit - General Settings - Vacation you can enter the code letters of the buttons you use for vacation to be counted in the Vacation Overview.

Would you like to change the order of the buttons, you can do this via the menu option Edit - General Settings - Change arrangement of buttons.

Weekends

You can determine weekends and recurring non-business days with the menu option Edit - Weekend.

Usually weekends and non-business days are locked for input. If you would like to make entries for these days uncheck the checkbox Lock non-business days and holidays for input.

Later modifications (e.g. a restaurant changes its day off) become effective at the beginning of the month in which the change is made. If you have already made entries for future days which now become non-business days you have to correct these days manually.

Non-business Days

Non-working days for all employees

You can block any further day as a non-business day. Right-click the mouse whilst pressing the SHIFT key on the desired day in the heading.

If you have already made inputs for days, which you subsequently blocked as non-business days, you have to correct these manually.

You can cancel the blocked non-business days, by right-clicking the mouse, whilst pressing the SHIFT key, in the heading of the weekday again.

Individual non-working days

You can mark days as non-working day individually for each employee by double-clicking on a cell. The cell is marked like a weekend day and is protected against overwriting by other entries. You can delete a non-working day by double-clicking on the cell again.

You can copy and paste non-working days like other entries. So you can enter the non-working days of part-time employees quickly and easily over a longer period in advance.

Holidays

With the menu option Edit - Holidays you can determine days, which will be indicated as holidays in the Attendance Planner.

Holidays are usually locked for input. If you would like to make entries for these days uncheck the checkbox Lock non-business days and holidays for input.

You can extend the list with the button More Holidays and enter further annually recurring holidays.

You can also mark days as once-off holidays. To do this go to the main form and right-click the mouse, whilst pressing the CTRL key, in the headline of the desired day.

You can transform the indicated holiday back into a working day, by right-clicking the mouse, whilst pressing the CTRL key, in the headline on the appropriate day again.

If you have already made entries for days, which you have subsequently changed to holidays, you have to correct these manually.

General Settings

You can make the following settings in the menu Edit - General Settings:

Vacation days

Do you wish to use the Vacation Overview in the menu View, you can enter the code letter for the buttons that you use for full and half vacation days. If you use separate buttons for scheduled and approved vacation, you can enter a further code letter. These buttons are counted in the Vacation Overview.

The vacation entitlements of the employees need to be entered (menu Edit - Employees) in order to use the Vacation Overview.

A further condition is that you enter the code letter for the buttons that you use for vacation (menu Edit - General Settings - Vacation). Preset is code letter V for full day vacation and $\frac{1}{2}$ for half day vacation. To create the special character $\frac{1}{2}$, press the ALT key and type the key sequence 171 on the numeric keypad.

If you use a button for half day vacation, the information in the Vacation Overview is displayed with a decimal.

You can sort a column in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column heading. So, for example, you can display the employees with the highest number of residual leave with a single click.

How to start

Before you enter the vacation entitlements of the employees in the menu Edit - Employees you first have to determine at which date you wish to start entering the days of vacation. There are three options:

- Start at the beginning of the previous year (time-consuming): In this case enter the remaining vacation entitlement effective January 1st of the previous year in the column residual leave.
- Start at the beginning of the current year: Enter the remaining vacation entitlement effective January 1st of the current year and leave the column with the vacation entitlement of last year empty.
- Start at the current date: leave the column residual leave and the column with the vacation entitlement of the previous year empty. In the column with the vacation entitlement of the current year fill in the current remaining vacation entitlement for this year.

Table of Totals

You can view a summary of all entries for each 'reason for presence/ absence' with the menu option View - Table of Totals.

You can indicate a time period, for which you would like to display the logbook and you can select a name whose entries you would like to display.

You can sort the displayed entries by clicking on the desired column heading. With a double click on any cell, only those entries are displayed, which have the same content as the clicked cell. You can repeat this function.

Data Folder

Change data folder

You can choose the folder in which all data of the Attendance Planner is stored by selecting the menu option File - Change Data Folder. If you change the data folder, you move the data into the selected folder.

Export data

You can export the data folder with the menu option File - Export Data into a backup file.

Save your data regularly on an external back-up. If your hard disk fails, all your data will be irretrievable.

You can export currently displayed data to a CSV file by pressing the key F12. In this way you can continue editing the data using another program like Excel. An export to a CSV file is available for the Main Form, the Annual Overview, the Vacation Overview, the Table of Totals and the Logbook.

Import data

Using the menu option File - Import Data you can import a backup file saved under File - Export Data. All current existing data is overwritten by the data stored in the backup file.

Recover data

The program automatically sets regular backup periods e.g. the first program start-up of the day or before changing 'reasons for presence/ absence' or changing employee data.

The menu option File - Recover Data enables you to recover all data to an earlier backup point. All changes made since then, will be undone.

Before the data folder is recovered a new backup point is set, so you can undo the recovery.
